A Guide to Referencing – Chicago Notes Style

Why Should I Acknowledge My Sources?

At University a large percentage of your written work is based on the ideas of other writers. Therefore, it is important to let the reader of your writing know where you found your ideas. Whenever you have taken something from another author (that is, you have taken an author’s theory, opinion, idea, example, conclusion, or findings), you must say where the original can be found. In other words, you must acknowledge and cite your sources. This is important whether or not you use the author’s own words and, importantly, to avoid plagiarism.

Plagiarism occurs when you use other people’s ideas, words or data as if they were your own. Deliberate plagiarism is a serious act of academic misconduct. The University of Canberra imposes strict penalties on students who are found to contravene the University’s Student Academic Integrity Policy (referred to in the UC Student Guide to Policies at: http://www.canberra.edu.au/current-students/student-policies).

You need to acknowledge your sources:

• to acknowledge the work and ideas of other authors
• to allow the reader to check that what you are claiming is correct
• to show that you have read and understood the research in your area of study
• to lend authority to what you are writing
• to strengthen your argument
• to support your own ideas
• to provide details or background to what you are writing
• to provide interest.
In-Text Citation

You need to provide an in-text reference if you:

- use a long direct quotation
- use a short direct quotation
- use an indirect quotation by either paraphrasing or summarising.

In-text references typically contain the following information, in this order:

- the surname (family name) of the author/s
- the year of publication of the text
- the page number/s of the text (usually for direct quotation, particular ideas and concepts).

References

You will need to compile a list of all sources used in your assignment/report. Your Reference list must provide full and accurate details, as it is the means by which the reader can follow up your sources. Guidelines for referencing a variety of sources are available in this Library Guide.

General Guidelines

• Author

First Note - authors are written in full as they appear in the item e.g. John Andrew Wilson, Debbie M. Smith
Subsequent Notes - authors are given as surname only e.g. Wilson or Smith
Bibliography - First author is written as Surname, First Names, then all other authors are given as they appear in the item e.g. Wilson, John Andrew, Debbie M. Smith and Patricia Jones

• Titles - are usually written in italics. Capitalise the first letter of all significant words.

This is My Life: Collection of Photos by Andrew Snowden

• Articles - Article titles are not italicised, are enclosed in double quotation marks, and all significant words are capitalised. Journal titles are italicised and all significant words are capitalised.

"How We Use Mobile Phones," Social Science Quarterly

• Publishers - Publishers should be written in a shortened form, omitting words like Publisher, Inc, Co. Give the location as city name only unless the city is obscure or ambiguous, where you would add a state abbreviation for US cities or country for all other cities.

New York: Python Books
Cambridge, MA: Pearson
Cambridge, UK: Cambridge University Press
North Ryde, Australia: Penguin Books
Reference Lists

References are created using these style guidelines. They are then listed in a reference list or bibliography. This list is filed alphabetically by author, or by title if there is no author.

If you are using the Author-Date format you will need to compile a list of all sources used in your assignment/report. Your Reference list must provide full and accurate details, as it is the means by which the reader can follow up your sources.

Reference List / Bibliography entries are formatted with a hanging indent.

In-Text Citations

General Guidelines

Note: In-text citations for specific formats are listed below.

In the Chicago Author / Date style, text citations are entered in 2 ways:

• 'Information prominent' (the author's name is within the parentheses):

  The conclusion reached in a recent study (Cochrane 2007) was that ...

• 'Author prominent' (the author's name is outside the parentheses):

  Cochrane (2007) concluded that ...

Format - no direct quote

(Author Year)

Author (Year)

Note

If two authors have the same surname then you must include an initial.

e.g. (C. Doershuk 2009) (J. Doershuk 2010)

Examples

The conclusion reached in a recent study (Cochrane 2007) was that ...

Cochrane (2007) concluded that ...

Format - direct quote, fewer than 100 words

Note

The quote is entered in double quotation marks.

The source of the direct quotation normally follows the quotation but it may come earlier if it fits more smoothly into the introductory text (Chicago Manual of Style, section 13.62).

Examples

An interesting view was expressed that "the connection of high profile developments to their surrounding environment has increasingly been questioned" (Cochrane 2007, 117).

An interesting view was expressed by Cochrane (2007, 117) that "the connection of high profile developments to their surrounding environment has increasingly been questioned".

An interesting view was expressed by Cochrane (2007) that "the connection of high profile developments to their surrounding environment has increasingly been questioned" (117).

Format - direct quote, more that 100 words

Text

Quote (Author Year, Page/s)

Note

Quotation marks are not used in this format and the quote is indented.
Much has been written about acute care. Finkelman, for example, points out that:

there are many changes in acute care services occurring almost daily, and due to the increasing use of outpatient surgery, surgical services have experienced major changes. Hospitals are increasing the size of their outpatient or ambulatory surgery departments and adjusting to the need of moving patients into and out of surgical service in 1 day or even a few hours. (Finkelman 2007, 184-5)

Recently, this trend has been seen in some Australian hospitals and research here ...

Two or Three Authors

Format

(Author and Author Year)

Author and Author (Year)

(Author, Author and Author Year)

Note

Cite all names every time the reference occurs in text.
Example
(Littlejohn and Foss 2005)

Four or More Authors

Format

(Author 1 et al. Year)

Author 1 et al. (Year)

Example

(Green et al. 2009)

Note

If citing two or more books with different authors which shorten to the same author and year, then add extra authors until they are unique.

Examples

Book 2. Green SL, Snowden PY, Robertson BL & Moss V 2010

In-text citations become:

(Green, Andrews, et al. 2010)

(Green, Snowden, et al. 2010)

Same Author / Same Year

General guidelines

If the same author or group of authors have multiple works published in the same year, identify each work by adding the suffixes a, b, c, d after the year.

Example

(Fullan 1996a)

(Fullan 1996b)
Corporate Author / Organisation

Format

(Corporate author Year)

Corporate author (Year)

Note

If the abbreviation of the corporate author is familiar or readily understandable then it can be entered as the corporate author.

Example

(Australian Institute of Health and Welfare 2009)

(AIHW 2009)

Two or More Works Cited Together

General guidelines

Order the citations within the parentheses in alphabetical order as they would appear in the reference list, separated by a semicolon. If there are multiple works by the same author include the year only of the additional works.

Example

(Carr and Kemmis 1986; Dick 2000; Kemmis and McTaggart 1988; MacIsaac 1995)

Special Cases

Multivolume sets or collections produced over several years

Enter a range of years to cover the set or collection.

(Allport 1930-67)
Reprinted material
Include the original and reprint date in the citation

Personal communication
Include the name of the writer and the abbreviation pers. comm.
(Mark Coleman, pers. comm.)

Legislation
Include the name and year of the Act.
(Anti-Discrimination Act 1991)

Case law
Give the name of the case and the year of the decision.
(Mace v. Murray 1955)

No Author / Editor

General guidelines
If no author is present use the title in place of the author. The title may be shortened to the first few words if it is a long title. If the work is attributed to Anonymous then this should be cited as the author.

Format
(Title Year)
Title (Year)
(Anonymous Year)

Example
(Macroeconomics, prices and quantities 1983)
No Year

If no date of publication is available use an estimated date or n.d. in place of the year.

Format

(Author n.d.)

(Author [estimated date?])

Examples

(Browne n.d.)

(Smythe [2007?])

Citing a Source Within a Source

It is always better to read the original source of a quote, however, you may not always have access to the original source. When citing a source you haven't read yourself, but which is referred to in a source you have read, include the original author and date in the text and cite the secondary source.

In-text reference

Schwartz 1987 (quoted in Burton, Westen and Kowalski 2009, p.576) stated that "..."

Examples - Bibliography

References

No Author / Editor

Note: If the author, editor, translator, of the like is unknown, the reference should start with the title. Works attributed to "Anonymous" should use this as the author.

Format

Title of Work. Year of publication. Edition. Location: Publisher. URL

Anonymous. Year of publication. Title of Work. Edition. Location: Publisher. URL

Examples

No Location / Publisher / Year

If the location is unknown, the abbreviation n.p. takes the place of the location.

If the publisher is unknown, just enter the location and date.

If the year is unknown, the abbreviation n.d. or an estimated year in brackets bakes the place of the year.
